I had him on the water committee, finance committee, and street committee, which I considered is the biggest of the town. I had the confidence in him, but he was chairman of the water committee. Mr. Johnson, George Johnson which you have here today,--he is chairman of the finance committee and is chairman of the street committee.

Q You appear to be a very busy man? A. Well, I do.

(Later Mr. Palzer added the following statement:)

MR. PALZER: Mayor Enoch T. Van Camp states that he remembers the visit made by Rev. and Mrs. Hall in June of 1922 at the time that they were in search of a camp site, and particularly the statement made to him, Van Camp, by Henry Stevens on that occasion that Mr. Hall was a very nice fellow.
